UNISPECIALIST
EMPLOYMENT PARTNERSHIPS

USEP

Points of Difference

- The USEP program provides flexible support by having a Specialist Employment Consultant based on campus. (Due to COVID-19 consultations are conducted via zoom)
- The USEP program provides ongoing support while at university and the transition to the workplace
- Provides coaching to support you, if required, on how to talk about your disability with an employer during application process and in the workplace
- USEP focusses and strengthens self-efficacy
- Provides onsite support to participants who have successfully secured employment to ensure a seamless transition
- USEP uses a 'person-centred' approach that ensures that the program is delivered in a way that is respectful of, and responsive to, the preferences, needs and values of each individual
- USEP works in partnership with the participant by providing relevant university and external resources to increase their employability
- USEP participants are empowered to become their own agents of change and take control over their professional future
- USEP is university supported and individuals don't need to be connected with other disability supports for eligibility
- USEP has direct connection with graduate programs

USEP